TAX COLLECTION TO BEGIN DEC. 20

Janesville's Rate Is $21.11, Lower Than Beloit, Madison, Oshkosh, Kenosha.

Collection of taxes in Janesville will begin Monday, December 20, and continue throughout January, it was announced today by City Treasurer W. J. Lennartz and City Clerk E. J. Bartell. It has been definitely determined that the property owners shall pay taxes on the basis of $21.11 per $1,000 of valuation as compared to $21.60 last year. This is the same as announced unofficially several days ago.

With the definite determination of $21.11 as the rate in Janesville, it is interesting to learn what will be the rate in other Wisconsin cities. The Beloit common council has adopted a budget which combined with the other county budgets makes it necessary to have a $30 rate there, the highest in history. A $22.50 rate has been agreed upon in Madison, while Kenosha will probably pay on the basis of $35 per $1,000. Up in Oshkosh, the rate has not been definitely fixed, but it is expected it will be no higher than last year, $25.

Beloit Budget Boosted.
Beloit's high tax rate is made necessary by an increase of the city budget from $500,000 to $700,000. The assessed valuation there is more than $7,000,000 less than Janesville, accounting for a big difference in the rate per $1,000.

On a basis of Janesville's valuation of $3,974,832, a total of $21.11 and 376 will be raised by the personal and real property tax.

Although the new tax rate here is 49 cents under that of last year, the highest in history, nevertheless it does not mean property owners will pay less in the aggregate. Instead the majority will pay slightly more by reason of re-assessment in which a general 10 per cent increase was made in valuation. For instance a man whose home was assessed at $5,000 last year paid $105 taxes on the basis of the $21.60 rate. This year he will probably find his assessment increased to about $5,500, which with tax rate of $21.11, will make his total tax, $116.10, or an increase of $10. In some cases no change was made in assessed valuation. These property owners will find their taxes less.

Rates for 16 Years.
Taxes were paid last year on an assessed valuation of $13,838,338 and the year before, $16,955,260.

A comparison of the tax rate in Janesville for the past 16 years is shown:

Year	Per $1,000
1905	15.11
1906	15.11
1907	15.80
1908	16.00

OBREGON RECEIVES MANY VISITORS IN TINY, CRUDE OFFICE
Mexico City.—In a tiny, rickety, turn-out office on the second floor of a building undergoing repairs General Alvaro Obregon, president, has received daily hundreds of people who come here to plead their cause with him. Most of them were office seekers and claimants for political favor and they spent hours waiting to tell General Obregon in what particular way they helped him in his ascendancy and why they should be rewarded. Their numbers were so great that the president-elect before his inauguration Dec. 1, was at his office seven hours a day seven days a week, and most of that time was consumed in a patient hearing of claims.

Following an arduous campaign which culminated in his overwhelming election last September, Gen. Obregon came to Mexico City and established headquarters in the office on Avenida Madero where his office "clerks" were conducted. The office, at least, was divided by a cloth partition into a private sanctum for the general and compact workrooms for his secretaries.

Outside there were several anti-chambers which, from 9:30 o'clock in the morning when the president-elect arrived for work until 7 o'clock at night with a couple of hours allowed for lunch, were crowded with people.

There were numerous doors to pass before the inner chamber is entered and at each stood two guards, who questioned closely all comers. Those with apparent legitimate reasons for their presence were allowed to proceed; the others were turned back to join the ever-present throngs in the corridors.

Gen. Obregon has been quoted as saying that one of the contributing elements to Mexico's unrest has been the popular belief that a successful political candidate must reward every one of his supporters. He has described the system as pernicious because in the event of a successful candidate, the numbers never diminish despite the seven hours of conferences which the president-elect held every day. Some of them apparently had no other occupation.

By way of diversion, President Obregon provided a band which gave daily concerts in the courtyard.

Big Loss in Pulp in Making Paper.

Forest requirements of the United States industry of the United States annually of which about 4,000,000 cords are utilized by processes other than groundwood pulp, writes C. W. Butler, assistant director of the Association of Wood-Using Industries in the American Forestry Magazine of Washington.

We are leaning on Canada for 20 per cent of this supply. The best utilization that has so far been accomplished is 45 per cent of the wood substance. Thus for every cord of wood pulped by these processes some 55 per cent of the original weight of the wood is lost.

In terms of our annual consumption of pulpwood this amounts to over a million cords. It is the usual practice for pulp mills to store their wood over considerable periods and recent investigations indicate that improper methods of storing result in an actual loss of 10 or 15 per cent in the weight of the wood. This means an annual loss to the industry and to the nation of 575,000 tons of pulpwood with a valuation of over $11,000,000. But the waste of the pulpwood does not end here.

The raw wood is converted into groundwood pulp, and much of it must necessarily be ground during periods of high water then held in storage. Infection with consequent decay is apt to occur, causing a large annual loss estimated by the industry of $5,000,000 annually.

Boy Wonder Who Outings Opera Stars Like Electricity

GREAT AMERICANS—With Cut ..

New York.—Musical critics of the metropolis are interested in Robert Murray, the 12-year-old boy from Tacoma, Wash., who has come here to prepare his voice prior to a tour of the country. The youth is said to sing higher clear notes than many famous opera stars.

The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Murray. He is a quiet, normal lad. He likes New York, he said, but he likes Tacoma better. For there his chum "Bob" Evans lives, and until "Bob" arrives here Robert will be inconsolable. But "Bob," who is going to study the drama, is coming here shortly.

Robert explains that his ambition, "really, truly," is to become a great singer, or bass and tenor, he would prefer tenor. He adds that he was shipped Caruso, for whom he has often sung since his discovery by Mine Alca, and he made an especial study of him in "Le Prophete," which he admires greatly. But Robert is interested in other things, especially electricity.

He has a wireless at home, and electric trains, and to make a study of wireless and electricity his mother eral, as a prospective dinner, have done so to their sorrow.

"Byng" has a powerful kick, and when the "elder" cat made a leap for a strangle hold on the back of "Byng's" neck it was received with a tearing wail from the rabbit's hind feet, the blow apparently breaking the cat's ribs. Then according to neighbors, the rabbit proceeded to kick the cat around the lawn until life was extinct. Mrs. Fields says the rabbit had previously killed two cats by similar methods. After killing the latest victim the rabbit was seen to turn and bite a third notch in his left hind leg, and now the neighbors are suggesting the rabbit's name be changed to "Home Brew."

GORGEOUS FABRICS FAVORED FOR NEW MIDWINTER SUITS

By ELOISE.

Th suits for midwinter wear are very luxurious affairs this season. They are made of soft materials, either woolen or lustrous satin finished fabrics. Duveltyns and variations of that fabric and velvets are very popular, while a new material called chinchilla satin is a favorite for the most costly and dapper suits. Here is a very fashionable model made of brown chinchilla satin. It has a rather narrow, plain skirt and a long fur-trimmed coat. Fox fur makes a deep shawl collar and is used to form huge tabs on the sides of the coat. Other fashion indications which are interesting are the under arm embroidery, the use of tassels, the sleeve that is extremely tight at the wrist, and the semi-fitted effect of the coat. Such a suit is appropriate for any dress occasion of the day.

APPROPRIATE MONUMENT TO ADM. DEWEY AT MANILA

The Manila Times says that Rear Admiral Casio B. Morgan, U. S. N., commandant of the sixteenth naval district and of the naval station at Cavite, in a letter to Gov. Gen. Francis B. Harrison of the Philippines, has taken the first active step to erect a monument to Admiral Dewey at Manila Bay May 1, 1898.

After referring to the absence of any monument or public improvement in the city of Manila bearing the name Dewey, Admiral Morgan adds: "The admiralty should erect such a monument to the deeds of this great naval officer should exist. As one of the officers that served under Admiral Dewey in the Battle of Manila Bay, this concerns me deeply."

After referring to Admiral Dewey's great service to his country in the Philippines, the admiral continues: "We and the people of other countries, have honored by public recognition many names of much less soldiers or statesmen. One sees monuments to the great American builders of this government in the Philippines. But where is the monument to the conqueror who made all this possible, seen on any permanent monument?"

He expresses the hope that the suggestion of the erection of a monument to the great American sailor will appeal to the governor.

To this Governor Harrison replied in part as follows: "I know of no reason or sentiment which has determined to erect a monument to the great American sailor will appeal to the governor.

BUCKERIDGE CASE DROPPED IN BELOIT

Officials Fail to Connect Him With "Reign of Terror" at Paddocks.

Police are unable to connect up Alfred E. Buckeridge with the alleged reign of terror at the farm of W. S. Paddock near Beloit, with the fact that Buckeridge was released from the municipal court in Beloit yesterday afternoon. The charge of non-support was dropped when the defendant agreed to contribute to the support of his son and allow the boy to remain in the custody of his mother, Elsie Buckeridge, who is divorced from Buckeridge.

The mysterious assault and attacks at the Paddocks have been covered up. While no assault and attempts to kidnap either Mrs. Buckeridge or the Paddock family, the family reports that the men are still in the custody of the police at times. Lights have been seen in the thickets across the Paddock farm yard and several times have been seen in the shadows.

No Connection. District Attorney S. G. Dunawide could place no connection between Buckeridge and the attacks at Paddocks, hence releasing the man. The district attorney was skeptical that Buckeridge had any connection with the case since he was on a western trip during the time the Paddock home was in danger and shots were fired from the Paddock place. Fred Delay made every attempt to have Buckeridge admit he was the instigator of the repeated attacks while Buckeridge was confined in the county jail here awaiting a hearing in Beloit.

COURT RECESSES TO 2 P. M. MONDAY

Following the dismissal of the slander suit against Thomas E. Walsh, Judge George Grimm released the circuit court jury until two o'clock Monday afternoon. Settlement was reached in several cases, including the action of Stenopols against Inman, a Beloit auto accident case. The court calendar for Monday calls for the drawing of two juries for the civil action cases of Strimpe against the Parker Pen company, and Armstrong against the Stenopols and Inman. When the juries are drawn draws for trial will be set. The next case to come up Monday afternoon is the state's action against D. Frank Ryan charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm. It is hardly expected that the court will be able to do more than draw the jury for this case. The case against Reine Herdendorf is slated for trial after the Ryan case.

HE COULDN'T HAVE BEEN VERY DRUNK

Two separate charges of intoxication against George Keating were dismissed by Judge H. L. Maxfield yesterday afternoon following testimony by Officer Charles Harmon that he chased Keating through an alley and later found him hiding in a stairway. The judge held Keating was not proved intoxicated when he had ability to "up a fast rate of speed." E. H. Ryan appeared for him, City Attorney Roger G. Cunningham for the city. The judge advised lodging a different charge against Keating.

In Wisconsin

Madison.—Judge H. S. Sheridan, Milwaukee, handed down a decision in the matter of the will and testament of Theodore Johnson, holding that Mrs. Hahn, principal beneficiary in an estate of $50,000, cannot take anything because of the fact that she subscribed witnesses under the instrument. The entire estate will go to the heirs, except $250 bequeathed to others.

Milwaukee.—Convicted of receiving John Sperry, Chicago, out of $800 through a "bagger" named John and Della Glibbe were sentenced to three years each in the house of correction. In passing sentence the court said that they wished to place the couple on probation, but could not do so under statute covering offense charged. Judge Coulin announced that he would make an effort to pardon the couple. A three months' old child adopted by the couple is being cared for at the detention home.

Antique.—The grand jury called to investigate the alleged manufacture, smuggling and hauling of liquor in Langlade county, went into sequester session immediately after receiving instructions. Reports are current that school boys carried liquor prescriptions and bottles on their person, selling them to others. Judge Goodrick stated that any liquor, imported or sold by a witness, would be charged with contempt of court.

Barren.—Charles Swan, for many years a resident of Barren, died at his farm. He was on board the liner Empress of India when it sank in St. Lawrence river a few years ago and was rescued by life savers. He was 60 years of age and in poor health for years.

They were sold at a supper attended by more than 350 members of the association. Everyman in the hall bought at least one and some bought fifty.

CONDITION OF BANKS IN STATE REPORTED AS ENCOURAGING

Madison.—The condition of the 836 state banks, trust companies and savings banks of Wisconsin is highly encouraging, the State Banking department said after completing its abstract of state reports received in response to the call of November 16. The total increase in resources less redemptions over those of November 17, 1919 is $51,154,044.

On November 15, 1920 the total resources less redemptions was $20,602,972.52, while on November 17, 1919 it was $46,338,927.86 the department's tabulations show. There was a slight decrease of $4,380,020.55 between this marked increase in the two months. It was explained that this was partially made up by a decrease of United States securities amounting to $2,449,399.15 and also by money due from approved reserve banks, other banks, checks, and processes of collection and cash items amounting to $4,265,151.74. There was a small increase in loans and discounts of $2,053,081.55, and in other stocks, securities and bonds amounting to $1,851,369.08. Cash in vaults was $329,182.58.

On the liability side of banks during the two months between November 15 and September 8, there was a marked increase in the following items, the department announces. The surplus was raised by $112,114.49, undivided profits $1,854,486.00, savings deposits $4,715,429.85, United States deposits $229,855.35, and Postal Savings deposits $7,822.15.

Wisconsin has special reason to feel encouraged at this time to know that the bills payable including obligations for money borrowed other than redemptions increased only $432,702.40. Increase in the two months contingent liability for rediscounts of $1,360,108.58 it was stated. There was a slight decrease in the two months of individual deposits subject to check demand, certificates of deposit and time certificates of deposit. The total of these three items amounted to $1,052,035.54.

Wisconsin is to be congratulated upon its financial showing as illustrated by the present report, Marshall Cousins, Commissioner of Banking, says.

PRICE OF BREAD BEING INVESTIGATED IN MILWAUKEE
Milwaukee, Dec. 10.—An investigation into the price of bread is being conducted in Milwaukee by the state marketing division, at the suggestion of the judiciary committee of the Milwaukee council. With the information obtained the division will be in a position to determine whether unreasonable profit is being made by bakers, or a profit which would warrant a reduction.

BREAKFAST CEREALS ARE CUT IN PRICES
Milwaukee, Dec. 10.—Further declines in price of cereals served at downtown restaurants are taking place, it was reported here. At one restaurant all cereals included in breakfast orders were cut 6 cents. With half milk and half cream, the cereals are 10 cents a dish.

BRICK MASONRY HOLD CONVENTION IN MILWAUKEE
Milwaukee, Dec. 10.—Increased wage demands will not be counteracted by the Wisconsin Brick Masons' association, it was announced. The statement followed the unanimous vote of the brick masons who are holding their annual convention here. H. T. Mattson, Racine, was elected president, and Paul F. Pritsch, Milwaukee, secretary-treasurer.

Having Sport With Tax Figures

Take another look with Tate L. Hackney of the field audit control section, income tax unit, at the $5,498,075,068 that Uncle Sam collected in taxes during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1920, says the Washington Star.

It's a levy of $51.55 on every one of the 105 million men, women and children in the continental United States.

It would build more than 2½ million cottages, which could equal more than 13 million persons—equal to the population of New York state, or twenty-seven of the less populous Western states.

It would give each of these individuals a cheap motor car.

If cashed into silver dollars and they were stacked flat together they would reach from New York to San Francisco and return—8,823 miles—and enough left to form a silver cable across the Atlantic.

In silver dollars, edge to edge, it would stretch 128,032 miles, or around the earth more than four times.

It would require 25,804 trucks, or a line of them ninety-six miles long to haul this wealth.

It would require 1,634 flatcars, with 14 locomotives, to transport this amount of silver dollars. The train would reach forty-three miles.

If in one-dollar bills, it would weigh 12,244,225 pounds—136 carloads of paper money.

End to end the bills would reach 628,837 miles, or 27 strands of greenbacks wound around the globe.

The dollar bills would pave a street eight feet wide entirely around the earth.

It would take an expert counted 1,020 years just to count the bills.

If Father Adam had started working on the first day of his life, 7,000 years ago, at $1.47 a minute, or $88.16 an hour stopping to eat or sleep, he would still have eighty years more to work before he would have earned enough to pay our 1920 tax bill.

Deposit in a bank at 4 per cent interest, and before an expert can count it the interest will amount to forty times the principal.

It cost only 12 of 1 per cent to collect it.

FARMERS' EQUITY PROVIDES JOINT MARKETING PLAN

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago — Farmers' co-operative sales of butter and eggs in Chicago this year through the Farmers' Equity Union amounted to $2,000,000, P. L. Betts, national vice president of the union and manager of the Chicago agency, reports. He said that the organization was getting ready to handle poultry here.

The Farmers' Equity Union, Mr. Betts said, is one of the largest farmers' co-operative organizations in this country. Its greatest business is in grain, and he estimated the amount of grain handled this year at upwards of $150,000,000. The union is composed of some 650 local exchanges. Their aggregate capital stock for 1920 placed at about $3,000,000. He said the savings returned to farmers ran into the millions.

Is Purchasing Agency The union operates farmers as a co-operative purchasing agency. Its Chicago head said that purchases made through it amount to some millions of dollars annually. Its members, he said, was two Denver company, from which coal is shipped to farmers' co-operative elevators to sell to the farmers, in territories west of the Missouri.

Touching on the matters relating to the union, Mr. Betts said is now organized in 14 states, from Colorado to Ohio and from North Dakota to Texas, with a membership of about 35,000 farmers.

Dividends Are Limited "Dividends are stock, regardless of per cent on the amount of profit, and are paid to all stockholders. The surplus over the fixed dividend is divided pro rata to members according to the amount of business they have furnished. This is what makes the equity a purely co-operative institution. Exchanges are organized under the co-operative law of the state they are in, if there is such a law; if not, under the usual corporation act."

"We have three purchasing agencies, located in Chicago, in Lima, Pa., and at Denver, Colo. We have a seat on the Buffalo and the Erie Railroad in the Buffalo and the Erie Railroad exchange, which is the Chicago butter and egg board. Our grain houses receive grain in car lots and sell as a commission firm."

"To return to our purchasing work, we buy direct from the factory. We have a contract with the third largest binder twine factory in the country for several million pounds annually, on other with a large fence from the west and we buy lumber direct from the western mills. We handle farm machinery and other staples that farmers purchase through elevators."

Run Co-operative Creameries "We have co-operative creameries at Aberdeen, S. D., Orleans, Neb., Limon, Colo., and Liberal, Kan. Our members are organizing another one at East St. Louis, Ill., and are getting ready to start a fifth one at Port Wayne, Ind. The Aberdeen creamery is one of the finest in the country, costing $140,000. Its savings in four years after cost of operation and setting aside a substantial part of the net earnings in accordance with the South Dakota co-operative company law, have amounted to $104,000."

The Farmers' Equity Union has no political aspect, according to Mr. Betts. "We advocate no change in the system of society," he said. "We are capitalistic. We merely advocate the ownership by the farmer of a part of the means of distribution."

National Headquarters are at Greenville, Ill., which is the home of the union's national president and founder, C. O. Drayton. Local exchanges and agencies run under no uniform name. That of the Chicago house the Chicago Equity Union Exchange.

OUR COUNTRY'S NEED. What does our country need? Not armies standing ready for the night. Not increased navies, skillful and commanding. To bound the waters with an iron might. Not haughty men with glittering purses trying. To buy up souls and keep the people of place. Not jeweled dolls with one another's graces. For palms of beauty, elegance and grace. But we want men and women strong of soul and yet lowly. With that rare meekness born of gentleness. Persons whose lives are high and pure and holy. With purest souls for all things low and mean. Men who broad of shoulder—strong of mind. Big enough to guide us through our troubles. Direct the Ship of State, while we readjust our business and our lives to peace times. Oh, for a man who will tell us when and where to start and stop! Such a person would be the Saviour. Of our country—eliminate the Guide good men in these stormy times. —F. W. Jamesville Wis.

CIGAR NAMES The nomenclature of the cigar is one of the most interesting phases of democracy. No agent intent upon building up a market for a 10-cent cigar ever inquired of a statesman, "Is it contemplated, instead, an actor, a philanthropist, a race horse, a hypothetical Indian maiden or a supposititious Spanish maiden to have named a 10-cent cigar for a statesman would have been to 'queer' both the cigar and its involuntary patron. The people would not have stood for that sort of thing. It would have presumed a certain superiority which they would have rebuked both at the cigar stand and at the polls.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Master of Kinloss, Baroness' Son, to Wed Village Smithy's Daughter

London—A romance which began 15 years ago has just culminated in the announcement by the Master of Kinloss of his engagement to Miss Katharine Beatrice Mackenzie Jackman, daughter of a village blacksmith, who lives in the shadow of Stowe House, the ancestral seat of the Master of Kinloss.

English society has long since got over being shocked by sons of nobility marrying actresses and chorus girls' beauties. But it is a unique event for the heir to one of the oldest baronies to find his fiancée in the home of a village blacksmith.

And this is what the Master of Kinloss has to say about it: "In these days of democratic marriages I fall to see anything unusual in this, and it is to my mind more the duty of others to wish us future happiness."

The Master of Kinloss has just passed his thirty-first birthday. His fiancée is 28. He was ordained in 1914 and was some time the curate of St. Sepulchre, Northants. Stowe House and the thousands of acres surrounding it are to be sold, it is said.

The barony dates from 1602, when the first holder, Sir Edward Bruce Temple, Morgan-Greenville, Baroness Kinloss, his mother, is the eldest daughter of the late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who died in 1894. She married in 1884 Maj. Luis Ferdinand Morgan, Greenville. Her eldest son was Richard George Greaves, a lieutenant in the rifle brigade, who, after being twice wounded, was killed early in 1914.

Stowe House, one of the most famous mansions of England, is stored with treasures of great historic interest.

The future peeress has no desire to reside over this famous house, in whose state during room royalty has been entertained. Queen Mary and Princess Mary lunched there in July of last year. King Edward was a frequent visitor and Queen Victoria was numbered among its royal guests.

Miss Jackman, whose nickname is "Puss," is yearning to be the mistress of a small cottage and not of such an imposing mansion as Stowe House. The Master of Kinloss has a breezy, genial manner. Recently he was in Canada.

CHICAGOANS RIDE ON EARTH, NEW YORKERS GO ABOVE OR BELOW

New York—More than half of New York city's "six million" travel on subways and elevated lines, but Chicago still sticks largely to surface cars while London passengers divide their patronage almost equally between buses, trolleys and rapid transit system.

Figures revealing these statistics of travel in three of the world's largest cities were presented here of transport authorities who are meeting monthly to discuss New York's great transportation problem. It was shown that 6,750,000 persons live in the metropolitan district within a 20 mile radius of Fifth avenue at Thirty-fourth street. About 2,800,000 of them live or Manhattan Island and another 2,000,000 flock into Lower Manhattan every week day. Fifty-four per cent of these ride on subways and elevated lines, 35 per cent patronize surface cars, ferries haul 5 per cent, commutation steam trains 4 per cent, and 2 per cent travel in buses.

In Chicago surface cars carry 73 per cent of the city's passenger traffic, rapid transit lines get 21 per cent, and the other 6 per cent travel on suburban steam trains. In London the ratio is 33 per cent in buses, 27 per cent in surface cars and 40 per cent in rapid transit lines. Manhattan Island's population averages 153 persons per acre, and Brooklyn has 46, while the average for the 572 square miles of hoolib for the metropolitan district is 21 persons per acre. This is compared with 16 per acre in London, 20 in corporate Chicago, 26 for Detroit and 23 for Cleveland.

It was predicted by one of the engineers that the five boroughs of New York will grow to 5,500,000 in population by 1945 and by that time the city would need 48 subway and elevated tracks running north and south on Manhattan Island.

Roscoe Arbuckle will be shown soon in a full length movie made from Irvin Co.'s story, "The Life of the Party."

Bryant Washburn will be shown soon as a young man who tried to do the wrong thing which always turns out right. It is called "An Amateur Devil."

WHY THE YOUTH LEAVE SMALL TOWNS

Ask 50 of the younger generation which they would prefer, to end the days in mediocrity in the cities, or achieve something in a small town, around two-thirds of them will give the obvious answer, "Who wants to be a big frog in a small pond?" is the common but classic comment.

Our dislike of the small town, and all that goes with it, is bred in the bones. It stands for all that is to be minimized and repressed in our national and economic life. Anything of color has come to be "small-town stuff."

Let a merchant lag behind his fellows and he is a "small-town trader." Let a banker be particularly conservative and he is a "country banker afraid of his life." Let prejudices sway the populace and we sneer at their "small-town minds."

"The small town is a good place to get out of," said a young man the other day. He was leaving his father's clothing store and setting out for the city to take a job on a salary. He was just echoing the sentiment of generations of small-town people.

The young men, more restless than the others, leave the small town to cast their lot with the cities; those who are content with things stay in the town and go along as did their fathers. Now and then one of them turns his town upside down, shakes the kinks out of it; but that is all too seldom.

The "small town" presents a problem in our national life. The essence of that problem lies in the fact that business has been allowed to stagnate and die in the small town; the development and growth which rightly belongs to it has been permitted to gravitate to the cities along with the ambitious young man.—Leslie's Weekly.

WASHBURN'S BACK HOME. Mr. and Mrs. Washburn were welcomed home again after their five-month vacation and filming trip abroad, where Mr. Washburn made his first independent production, "The Road to London."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Washburn have spent several hours since their return trying to introduce themselves in their legal relationship to their younger son, Bryant Jr., of course, remembered his parents, but the baby was too little to be expected to do that, and now he is a bit loath to become as well acquainted as father and mother Washburn would like.

MILDRED HARRIS RETURNS

Mildred Harris, Chaplin and her mother, Mrs. Harris, left for New York a few days ago. Final settlement in connection with Mrs. Chaplin's divorce from the famous comedian having been made, she returns to New York free of all marital bonds.

She says she is as happy as a bird now and eagerly anticipating her work before the camera in New York and studying for the stage during her leisure moments. "Miss Harris denies that the divorce settlement stipulated that she drop the name of Chaplin for professional purposes. She said this action was voluntary with her. 'The name of Chaplin hurt my career,' she said, 'and henceforth I will use my own name.'"

ANTIA SEWART BUSY

Antia Stewart's next contribution to the silver screen will be "Lilac Time," by Jane Murn. The picture will be made at the Louis B. Mayer studio in Los Angeles. Just now Miss Stewart is at her Long Island, N. Y., home on vacation.

HEROINE OF POLAND
BURIED; WARSAW
CROWDS PRESENT

Warsaw—All Warsaw turned out for the funeral the other day of Sergeant Sophie Potkowiak, a member of Poland's Women's battalion, who was called here the heroine of "Ploek." She died from wounds inflicted by a Russian sword and the "Nahajka" or Cossack's whip which she received at Ploek during the drive against Warsaw. As a final tribute the American nurses who attended her in the hospital and the entire personnel of the American Red Cross in Warsaw went to her funeral.

All Warsaw knew her story and there were many moist eyes that gazed at the plain white painted pine board coffin containing the girl soldier as it was borne through the streets on the shoulders of her fighting comrades, all girls from the Women's battalion.

Sergeant Sophie was a veteran of Poland's great war, which in the minds of most Poles began when the world war was ended in November, 1918. She was 22 years of age and was one of the original members of the Women's battalion which was formed late in 1918 for the purpose of defending Lemberg against the Ukrainians. She was wounded three times, first at Lemberg, again at Vilna, and last while leading her company against the Russians at Ploek. She typified the spirit of Poland today. There are 600 like her in the Women's battalion. Officers in the army from Pilsudski down admit that the mere existence of this battalion exercised a wonderful effect upon the popular imagination, upon recruiting, and even upon the soldiers in the recent heavy fighting.

The age limits for privates in the battalion are 17 and 23. Most of the women who have joined are of humble origin, and come from semi-stagnant industrial centers such as Lodz. The economic problem has had something to do with their continued existence as soldiers, but they have shown great enthusiasm and bravery. They have had many casualties.

MADISON, IND., LAYS CLAIM TO HAVING FIRST WOMAN'S CLUB

(By Associated Press.)
Madison, Ind.—The distinction of having the first woman's literary society in the United States, which for some time has been conceded to Har- mony, Ind., may be transferred to this city as the result of the discovery in the files of the Madison Banner of 1846-47 of articles concerning a women's club here.

Mrs. Frederic Krull, Indianapolis, whose grandparents were residents of Madison, recently found among her inheritance an essay written by her grandmother, Miss Georgianna C. Moore, by maiden name, which was read before the Ladies' Literary club of Madison in 1847. Mrs. Krull came to this city and upon searching through the files of the Banner found several articles giving accounts of the meetings of this club.

So far only the newspaper articles have been discovered to give authenticity to the existence of the club and attempts are being made to locate the constitution and other documents in order to give definite proof of the claim as the first woman's literary society, organization which has been credited with being the first was the Minerva society. This club was founded in 1859 at New Harmony by Miss Constance Painterly Runkle, granddaughter of Robert Owen, the founder of the social experiment colony of New Harmony. This club was followed nine years later by the famous Sorosis of New York city, the founder of which was Mrs. Jennie C. Croly, known to readers of that time as "Jennie June."

Both of these organizations have documents supporting their claims as pioneer literary clubs of the country and giving the definite dates of their formation. The society at Madison, according to the newspaper files, was in existence early in 1847, 12 years before the Minerva society, but so far nothing has been found to establish the date of its foundation. Mrs. Krull and residents of Madison are continuing their search for the records of the club.
